Rev. Father Burke,

543 Markham Street, Toronto.

Dear Father Burke:

On my return from Halifax I find your letter asking me to send you my lecture on "Newman". I greatly appreciate the compliment that you pay me in asking this request, but I am sorry that the lecture is in such a state that it is really not fit for publication. I have not touched it for three or four years, I should think. It is very long, and it would require more time than I can spend upon it at present to make it at all fit for appearing in print. With renewed assurance of my appreciation of your request, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
